

I would like for Sinclair to broadcast something that represents both candidates and for individual people to get both sides of the story. This is a typical case of misusing one's power for one's own gain.